

IN THE MICHIGAN COURT OF APPEALS

ORDER

Re: Gjusta Dedivanaj v DaimlerChrysler Corp
Docket No. 266769
L.C. No. 02-236947-CZ

Michael J. Talbot, Judge, acting under MCR 7.211(E)(2), orders:

The motion for immediate consideration is GRANTED.

The motion to strike appellant's brief is DENIED, but the time for filing appellee's brief is suspended until after the transcript of the hearing held on September 23, 2005, is served on appellee's counsel as required under MCR 7.210(F).

Within seven days after the Clerk's certification of this order, appellant's counsel shall secure the filing of the court reporter's certificate to confirm that the transcript order has been received and acknowledged by the appropriate court reporter. The transcript shall be filed within 42 days after the Clerk's certification of this order. Appellant's counsel shall serve a copy of the transcript on appellee's counsel and file proof of that service with the Clerk of this Court as required under MCR 7.210(F) within seven days after the transcript is filed with the trial court clerk.

The time for filing appellee's brief under MCR 7.212(A)(2)(a)(ii) shall be counted from the date the transcript is served.

Appellant is ordered to pay to appellee, within 21 days after the certification of this order, costs in the sum of $300 for her failure to comply with the requirements of MCR 7.210(B)(1) and MCR 7.210(F), the failure to comply with the court rules having necessitated appellee's motions. MCR 7.216(A)(7) and MCR 7.219(I).
